

Virginia's Hurricane Preparedness

SALES TAX HOLIDAY

May 25-31

Sales tax-exempt products for $60 or less:

Ice packs
artificial ice, blue ice,
reusable ice

Radios
battery-powered,
hand-crank,
electric

Duct tape

Batteries
AAA, AA, C & D
6-volt, 9-volt, cell
(Excludes auto/boat)

Fire Extinguishers

Tarps
waterproof plastic
sheeting & drop cloths

First-aid kits

Flashlights
lanterns,
glow sticks
(Excludes candles)

Buckets
barrels, canteens,

Two-way radios

Ratchet straps

Rope & bungee cords

Smoke & carbon monoxide detectors

Bottled water,
any size & number,
including flavored & carbonated

Storm shutters
specific for storms (Excludes plywood)

Manual can openers

Fuel containers
gas, propane or diesel

Ground anchor systems or tie
down kits

Non-electric food storage coolers

Cell phone chargers

NOAA weather
radios & weather
band radios

Portable generators,
generator power cords,
inverters & inverter power cables for $1,000 or less are also tax free.

Gas-powered chainsaws for $340 or less and chainsaw accessories for $60 or less also qualify.

Ready
✓
virginia

www.ReadyVirginia.gov

The Virginia Department of Taxation's Hurricane Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday Guidelines and Rules are available online at go.usa.gov/TmGR.

For detailed information about how to prepare your family for hurricanes and other emergencies, visit www.ReadyVirginia.gov.